Kids In The Middle Presents A Celebration of Childhood

Thursday, October 13 at Third Degree Glass Factory

For 45 years, Kids In The Middle has been helping families transition to a new way of life before, during and after separation and divorce for the sake of creating healthier futures for all involved. Each year Kids In The Middle serves 1,600 children and their families...never turning away a family due to financial resources.

10 Year Impact Statement

By 2031, Kids In The Middle will provide 45,000 kids and families with life-changing social and emotional skills to heal from the trauma of divorce and separation.

Kids In The Middle is a non-profit agency that helps families transition to a new way of life before, during, and after separation and divorce for the sake of creating healthier futures for all involved. Our services focus on providing support and opportunities to help them achieve goals and step into a healthy, balanced future. Kids In The Middle annually serves over 1,600 kids and families by providing life-changing social and emotional skills to heal from the trauma of divorce and separation.

Kids In The Middle is committed to breaking down financial barriers to accessing mental health services. As a result, we have made the promise to the community to never turn a family away due to an inability to pay for much-needed counseling services for their children.
